

Meet Our Young Leaders

Best student from 'The Crypto Revolution' 2021

Edward Thu

Edward Thu describes himself as an enthusiast, workaholic, and tech geek. He mostly spends his leisure time in front of a laptop or developing himself. He is interested in information technology and business.

Meet Our Young Leaders

Best students from 'Finding Your Way in the Labour Market' 2021

Jing Yi Chow

Jing Yi is a dynamic PR and marketing student with a background in broadcast journalism. She excels in creative problem solving, critical thinking, and fearlessly embraces new challenges.

Kenzie Leigh Wambangco

Kenzie describes herself as being driven and ambitious. She is a 1st-year college student pursuing a Bachelor of Science in Industrial Engineering. From a young age she has a deep passion for STEM and business, aspiring to build a career that integrates the two disciplines seamlessly.

Khanh Tong Le Van

Khanh describes herself as independent and self-motivated. She is an undergraduate student, with a dream of becoming a digital marketing specialist. Khanh has experiences of volunteering, teaching, content writing & copywriting and working on some projects.

Thanh Le

Thanh is a sophomore studying finance at Foreign Trade University in Vietnam. She is eager to learn and has a proactive mindset. She is excited to enhance her professional growth.

Meet Our Young Leaders

Best students from 'Financial Literacy' 2022

Dayang Shasha

Dayang is from Malaysia and she is currently pursuing a degree in law at University Malaya. She is highly interested in international law and global politics.

Eric Emmanuel Reyes

Eric graduated with a bachelor's degree in Asian Studies from the University of Santo Tomas in 2022. He is currently took a gap year during which he still maintains his membership in two organizations: The Initiative PH under the Department of Disaster Mitigation Recovery, and Project Pagsibol.

Sheena Louise Sancho

Sheena has graduated with an Accounting Honors from De La Salle University-Dasmariñas, Philippines. She also has completed her Korean language training at the King Sejong Institute through the Korean Cultural Center in the Philippines.

Virginia Marie Salmorin

Virginia is a Technology Consulting Associate at KPMG Philippines, an accounting firm that provides audit, tax, and consulting services. She graduated from the University of Santo Tomas with a Bachelor's Degree in Management Accounting. Virginia is a liberal that advocates for integrity and accessibility for all.

Meet Our Young Leaders

Best students from 'Financial Literacy' 2022

Thanaphon Nantharat

Thanaphon is an English major student aspiring to pursue a career in data analysis, software engineering, or related fields. He is driven by his passion for using language and technology to tackle complex challenges. His aspiration is in data analysis and software engineering.

Thi Ngoc Anh Tran

Thi is a sophomore student studying International Business at Western Sydney University. She is majoring in Applied Finance. Thi is passionate about finance and languages, she is currently seeking to leverage her major to become a financial specialist of the globalized market in the future.

Trang Tran

Trang is a junior associate at Allens, an international commercial law firm with offices in Australia and Asia. Her experience focuses on corporate and regulatory matters for renewable energy projects in Vietnam. Trang holds a Bachelor of Law from Hanoi Law University.

